

More Info

I grew up in Elizabethtown, Kentucky, just southwest of Lexington. My family resides in Lexington, and I enjoy spending my free time outside of the office with them. Outdoor activities, such as playing golf and softball, are some of my favorites and I can't help but be an avid supporter of University of Kentucky athletics.